READ BEFORE SIGNING: This document creates a legal obligation to repay money. The Borrower should not sign the receipt acknowledgment unless the full $2,500.00 has actually been received. Each party should keep a complete signed copy and proof of the transfer and all payments.

This Personal Loan Agreement and Promissory Note (the "Agreement") is made as of June 22, 2026, between Jonathan Miranda, as lender (the "Lender"), and Sammy Abdella, as borrower (the "Borrower"). The parties state that they reside in New York City, New York, and agree as follows:

1. Loan and Promise to Repay

The Lender agrees to lend the Borrower, and the Borrower promises to repay to the Lender, the principal sum of TWO THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($2,500.00). The loan is an unsecured personal loan. No collateral is pledged unless the parties later sign a separate written security agreement.

2. Disbursement and Evidence of Transfer

The Lender shall provide the $2,500.00 loan on June 22, 2026, by cash, check, electronic transfer, or another traceable method agreed by the parties. The Borrower shall sign the receipt acknowledgment at the end of this Agreement only after the funds have been received. A bank record, payment-app record, canceled check, written receipt, or similar record may be used as proof of disbursement.

3. Due Date and Method of Payment

The Borrower shall pay the full principal balance of $2,500.00 on or before July 22, 2026. Payment shall be made in immediately available funds by cash, certified check, electronic transfer, or another method accepted by the Lender. Payment is complete only when the Lender actually receives cleared funds. The Borrower may prepay all or any part of the loan at any time without penalty.

4. Interest Before the Due Date

No interest shall accrue from June 22, 2026 through July 22, 2026, so long as the entire principal is paid by the Due Date.

5. Default

The Borrower is in default if the Borrower fails to pay the entire unpaid principal by the end of July 22, 2026, or if the Borrower materially breaches another obligation under this Agreement. No oral extension or oral promise to delay collection is binding. Any extension must be in a writing signed by both parties.

6. Default Interest

If any principal remains unpaid after July 22, 2026, the unpaid principal shall bear simple interest at ten percent (10%) per year, beginning July 23, 2026 and continuing until the unpaid principal is paid in full or a judgment is entered, subject at all times to the maximum rate permitted by applicable law. Interest does not compound under this Agreement. On an unpaid principal balance of $2,500.00, the stated annual interest is $250.00, which is approximately $0.68 per day. Payments shall be applied first to accrued lawful interest and then to principal.

7. Lender's Right to Sue and Other Remedies

After default, the Lender may demand immediate payment and may file a lawsuit, including an action in a court with jurisdiction in New York City, to recover the unpaid principal, accrued lawful interest, and filing fees, service fees, and other costs only to the extent allowed or awarded by the court. The Borrower acknowledges that the fixed Due Date is material and that failure to pay by that date may result in legal action. Nothing in this Agreement waives any defense, exemption, notice right, or other protection that cannot lawfully be waived.

8. No Late Fee or Additional Penalty

The parties intend the 10% per-year default interest described above to be the only contractual charge for late payment. No separate percentage late fee, one-time 10% penalty, compounding charge, or other additional penalty shall be imposed unless the parties later sign a lawful written amendment.

9. Records and Payment Confirmation

The parties shall keep copies of this Agreement and records of the loan transfer and every payment. Upon full payment, the Lender shall provide the Borrower with a written acknowledgment that the loan has been paid in full.

10. Notices

Any demand, notice of default, or other notice under this Agreement shall be in writing and may be delivered personally, by tracked mail, by email, or by text message using contact information previously used by the parties for communications concerning this loan. Each party shall promptly notify the other in writing of any change in contact information.

11. No Waiver

A delay or failure by the Lender to enforce any right does not waive that right. Accepting a partial or late payment does not waive the right to collect the remaining balance or to enforce this Agreement, unless the Lender signs a written waiver.

12. Amendments and Entire Agreement

This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties concerning this loan and replaces all prior oral or written discussions about it. Any amendment, extension, forgiveness, or settlement must be in writing and signed by both parties.

13. Assignment

The Borrower may not transfer the Borrower's obligations under this Agreement without the Lender's written consent. The Lender may assign this Agreement only as permitted by law and shall provide written notice of any assignment.

14. Governing Law; Venue

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York. Any legal action shall be brought in a court having jurisdiction and proper venue in New York City, unless applicable law requires a different venue.

15. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is found invalid or unenforceable, it shall be limited or removed only to the minimum extent necessary, and the remaining provisions shall continue in effect. Any interest or charge shall automatically be reduced to the maximum lawful amount if a court determines that a lower amount is required.

16. Voluntary Execution and Opportunity for Review

Each party states that the party has read this Agreement, understands it, has had the opportunity to seek independent legal advice, and signs voluntarily. Each party represents that the information written in this Agreement is accurate and that no unwritten promise is being relied upon.
