SUBJECT TO LANDLORDS ACCEPTANCE

1. References and tenants must be satisfactory to the landlord or lease will be given consideration and deposit will be returned.
2. The landlord will not be bound and possession will not be given until leases signed by landlord have been mailed or delivered to the tenant.
3. If the leases are submitted they are to be signed by the applicant when presented, delivered, or mailed and returned together with sufficient security and with the first month's rent to this office within three days; otherwise the apartment will be offered for rent and the payment on account of first month's rent will be forfeited as liquidated damages.
4. No decorations and no alterations or repairs will be made other than stated above, and the landlord will not be bound by agreements or promises made by representatives who show apartments unless stated on this form. Failure to make such decorations or alterations by any given time shall in no way affect the lease. The landlord will make the same with as much expeditious as circumstances will permit.
5. The landlord assumes no responsibility to the applicant for delay in giving possession, due to failure of present occupant to vacate at termination of lease, or for any other reason, except that the applicant will be credited upon the rent next to accrue, with and allowance equal to the daily pro rata amount of the rent, multiplied by the actual number of days for which possession cannot be given, and the tenant agrees the lease subject to such contingency and condition.
