

10/07/25

Dear Sammy Abdella,

You are being offered a student casual position of Web Development Intern within Columbia College, beginning on or such other date as mutually agreed upon in writing. Please review all of the information below before accepting this offer.

Your hourly rate is $30 paid on a bi-weekly basis. The University's payroll calendar can be found at <https://humanresources.columbia.edu/content/payroll-calendars>.

Notice to Casual Employees

Student casual employees, those enrolled half-time or more at Columbia University, Barnard College or Teachers College, may not exceed 20 hours per week across all positions during the academic year (fall and spring semesters).

Non-student casual employees are limited to one job for a maximum of 560 hours or 4 months from initial hire date, whichever comes first, in a 12-month period with limited exceptions.

Casual employees are not eligible to participate in the Columbia University employee benefits programs, except for the Voluntary Retirement Savings Program (VRSP). To learn more about VRSP benefits, visit the Human Resources website at <https://humanresources.columbia.edu/retirement> and click on the student employees tab.

As a condition of your employment, please review the Important Compliance Information (which includes the I-9/Employment Eligibility Verification process, and other compliance information) attached to this letter. Please also note that all personnel working in a hospital or other settings covered by Article 28 of the New York State Public Health Law are subject to vaccination requirements, absent an approved medical exemption.

Your employment with Columbia University is "at will," which means that either you or Columbia University may terminate your employment at any time for any or no reason. There is no guarantee of your continued employment, or of employment for any specific duration, regardless of any other oral or written statement by any Columbia University Officer or representative.

After reading the additional information on the following pages, if you understand these terms and accept our offer of employment, please sign and return a copy of this letter.

Sincerely,

Evan Dunn
Associate Director of Web Operations

I hereby accept the offer of employment:

IMPORTANT COMPLIANCE INFORMATION

PRE-EMPLOYMENT BACKGROUND CHECK (Does not apply to student casuals)

Your offer of employment is contingent upon the satisfactory outcome of a personal background check consisting of a criminal history search (including the 50 states' sex offender registry) and/or other testing, depending on the position. The background check must be completed before commencing employment at the University.

FORM I-9/EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY VERIFICATION

Your employment is contingent upon verification of your identity and eligibility to work in the United States. Newly hired or rehired employees are required to complete a Form I-9 in compliance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 within the first three (3) working days and present valid, original documentation. Section one (1) of the I-9 must be completed online, no later than the first day of employment, on the Columbia University I-9 and E-Verify website at <https://humanresources.columbia.edu/i9-everify>. Section two (2) must be completed in person using original and unexpired documents (electronic versions and photocopies are prohibited under the law). Instructions on scheduling an appointment for completing section 2, either on campus or using the I-9 Anywhere service if you work outside New York City, can also be found on the website listed above.

COMPLIANCE INFORMATION AND TRAINING

Columbia University is committed to operating with integrity and fully complying with all applicable laws, regulations, and policies. The University does not tolerate retaliation against individuals who report compliance concerns. There are a number of resources available at the University to individuals concerned about unethical, illegal, or suspicious behavior. We encourage you to visit the University's Compliance website: compliance.columbia.edu, to familiarize yourself with University policies.

Maintaining a positive work environment and promoting a workplace free from discrimination and harassment supports the academic and research mission of the University by ensuring all members of our community can contribute to their fullest potential. As a condition of employment, you will be required to complete The New York Anti-Sexual Harassment training upon hire and every year thereafter in accordance with New York State and City Law.

As a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Council of Ivy Group Presidents (Ivy League), the University requires all members of the community, in all matters related to the intercollegiate athletics program, to exhibit the highest professional standards and ethical behavior about adherence to NCAA, Conference, University, and Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Physical Education rules and regulations.

All CUIMC faculty, staff, students, and other designated individuals at the university are required to complete HIPAA Privacy and Security Essentials training upon hire and annually thereafter to ensure continued vigilance in protecting our patient information. After activating your UNI, you will be automatically registered to complete the course and receive an email from Columbia's Enterprise Learning Management system (columbia@sabacloud.com) with instructions. This training must be completed within thirty (30) days of employment.

NEW YORK STATE HERO ACT

In accordance with New York State's hero act, we are providing all new employees with a copy of the prevention plan that Columbia has adopted to protect against the transmission of any airborne infectious diseases in the workplace as designated by the NYS Commissioner of Health (it does not apply to the current covid-19 pandemic). The plan can be found here:

<https://research.columbia.edu/sites/default/files/content/ehs/covid-19/heroactplan.pdf>.

NEW YORK CITY WORKERS' BILL OF RIGHTS

In accordance with New York City's Worker's Bill of Rights legislation, we are providing all new employees with a link to the rights and protections workers can expect:

<https://www.nyc.gov/site/dca/workers/workersrights/know-your-worker-rights.page>. For more information about Columbia's policies, please see the Human Resources section of the University Policies site:
